

LAST EDITION.

HER THROAT GASHED.

Mrs. Marquette, of Brooklyn, Found Bleeding to Death.

Her Nurse, Who is Well Provided for by Will, Arrested.

She is Executed, However, by the Injured Woman.

The Brooklyn police are today investigating a case of what is believed to be attempted suicide, but which presents some very strange and remarkable features.

It was reported early this morning by Anne D'Argy, a young French-Canadian girl, who has been employed by Mrs. M. Marquette, of 51 Willow place, as a nurse for the past two years, and who told the police that she had found her mistress lying on the floor of her bedroom half an hour after midnight with her throat cut.

The home is a small three-story brick building at the corner of State street and has been owned by Mrs. Marquette, who is an invalid, for several years.

She occupied the second floor along with the young French girl, who she engaged as a nurse two years ago. For the past year she has been suffering from cancer, and seldom left her bed.

Mrs. D'Argy told Capt. Drinan, of the Fifth Precinct, this morning that when she went to bed at 10 o'clock last night Mrs. Marquette was apparently sleeping quietly. She was awakened about 12:30 by hearing some one groaning in the room. She looked over the edge of the hammock in which she slept, and which was hung right beside Mrs. Marquette's bed, and in the dim light saw some one lying on the floor.

When she found that it was her mistress she says she assisted her to get into her bed, and then discovered that she was covered with blood.

She asked Mrs. Marquette what had happened but the latter only groaned and pulled the bedclothes up around her head and refused to say anything.

Mrs. D'Argy called for assistance from Mrs. James, who resided in the room above Mrs. Marquette, and then ran out to get a doctor, leaving the sick woman in the doctor's care.

She went to the house of Dr. Dudley, at the corner of State and Henry streets and rousing him up brought him around to the house. She told him that she thought Mrs. Marquette had suffered from a hemorrhage, as she was all covered with blood.

On the way over to the house they met Policeman John McCormick, who accompanied them to Mrs. Marquette's room.

As soon as Dr. Dudley examined the woman he found that she was bleeding profusely from an ugly cut in the right side of her neck, extending from the center of the throat around under the right ear.

She seemed to be suffering as much from shock as from loss of blood, and an ambulance was hastily summoned which took her to the Long Island hospital.

Dr. Dudley questioned the woman very closely before she was taken to the hospital, but she refused to give any account of the manner in which she had received her injuries.

The young woman who lived with her mistress said she knew nothing about it, and said she was awakened by her mistress groaning and found her lying on the floor.

Mrs. D'Argy arrested.

The police took Mrs. D'Argy into custody and took her to the station. She was taken to the station and was held in custody. She was taken to the station and was held in custody.

HE WAS WRIGHT.

The Coroner's Jury's Verdict in the Astor House Suicide Case.

The Edgar Theory Exploded and Utterly Discarded.

Summer's Frauds Commended to the Attention of the Grand Jury.

The inquest on William Wright, who committed suicide at the Astor House, where he had registered as "Fred Evans," was continued yesterday by Coroner Levy and a jury.

The evidence presented yesterday by Lawyer George H. Taylor, Jr., of Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, the Wright family's attorneys, in the shape of "Evans's" clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The theory of the police is that while suffering from temporary insanity, caused by her continued taking of morphine, Mrs. Marquette left her bed and went into the yard and tried to kill herself. The loss of blood from the wound restored her reason partially, and she tried to get back into the house.

When she reached her room she was too weak to regain her feet and fell upon the floor where Miss D'Argy found her.

It was long as March 16 full descriptions of these articles were printed in the Evening World, and a full description of the Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The World, however, has exposed Summer's plot and his house of cards tumbled yesterday in the hearing at the Tombs Court and again later in the day at the inquest.

Evidence corroborating The World's accusations against Summer was adduced yesterday afternoon at the inquest, by Mrs. Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, in claiming the Astor House suicide's body as Wright's, would have effectively blocked the inquest's game. The attorneys were identified Saturday that the proofs which heretofore had been developed by an Evening World reporter were conclusive, and they were satisfied that Wright was the Astor House suicide.

Lawyer Taylor told the jury that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

HE WAS WRIGHT.

The Coroner's Jury's Verdict in the Astor House Suicide Case.

The Edgar Theory Exploded and Utterly Discarded.

Summer's Frauds Commended to the Attention of the Grand Jury.

The inquest on William Wright, who committed suicide at the Astor House, where he had registered as "Fred Evans," was continued yesterday by Coroner Levy and a jury.

The evidence presented yesterday by Lawyer George H. Taylor, Jr., of Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, the Wright family's attorneys, in the shape of "Evans's" clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The theory of the police is that while suffering from temporary insanity, caused by her continued taking of morphine, Mrs. Marquette left her bed and went into the yard and tried to kill herself. The loss of blood from the wound restored her reason partially, and she tried to get back into the house.

When she reached her room she was too weak to regain her feet and fell upon the floor where Miss D'Argy found her.

It was long as March 16 full descriptions of these articles were printed in the Evening World, and a full description of the Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The World, however, has exposed Summer's plot and his house of cards tumbled yesterday in the hearing at the Tombs Court and again later in the day at the inquest.

Evidence corroborating The World's accusations against Summer was adduced yesterday afternoon at the inquest, by Mrs. Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, in claiming the Astor House suicide's body as Wright's, would have effectively blocked the inquest's game. The attorneys were identified Saturday that the proofs which heretofore had been developed by an Evening World reporter were conclusive, and they were satisfied that Wright was the Astor House suicide.

Lawyer Taylor told the jury that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

HOT NAVAL FIGHT

Chilian Rebel Warships Driven from Valparaiso Harbor.

Government Forts Beat Back the Iron Clad Blanco.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

Text of the Retiring Minister's Note to the Secretary.

And the Latter's Reply to the Italian Charge d'Affaires.

The Constitutional Phase of the New Orleans Trouble Shown.

HE WAS WRIGHT.

The Coroner's Jury's Verdict in the Astor House Suicide Case.

The Edgar Theory Exploded and Utterly Discarded.

Summer's Frauds Commended to the Attention of the Grand Jury.

The inquest on William Wright, who committed suicide at the Astor House, where he had registered as "Fred Evans," was continued yesterday by Coroner Levy and a jury.

The evidence presented yesterday by Lawyer George H. Taylor, Jr., of Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, the Wright family's attorneys, in the shape of "Evans's" clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The theory of the police is that while suffering from temporary insanity, caused by her continued taking of morphine, Mrs. Marquette left her bed and went into the yard and tried to kill herself. The loss of blood from the wound restored her reason partially, and she tried to get back into the house.

When she reached her room she was too weak to regain her feet and fell upon the floor where Miss D'Argy found her.

It was long as March 16 full descriptions of these articles were printed in the Evening World, and a full description of the Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The World, however, has exposed Summer's plot and his house of cards tumbled yesterday in the hearing at the Tombs Court and again later in the day at the inquest.

Evidence corroborating The World's accusations against Summer was adduced yesterday afternoon at the inquest, by Mrs. Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, in claiming the Astor House suicide's body as Wright's, would have effectively blocked the inquest's game. The attorneys were identified Saturday that the proofs which heretofore had been developed by an Evening World reporter were conclusive, and they were satisfied that Wright was the Astor House suicide.

Lawyer Taylor told the jury that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

HE WAS WRIGHT.

The Coroner's Jury's Verdict in the Astor House Suicide Case.

The Edgar Theory Exploded and Utterly Discarded.

Summer's Frauds Commended to the Attention of the Grand Jury.

The inquest on William Wright, who committed suicide at the Astor House, where he had registered as "Fred Evans," was continued yesterday by Coroner Levy and a jury.

The evidence presented yesterday by Lawyer George H. Taylor, Jr., of Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, the Wright family's attorneys, in the shape of "Evans's" clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The theory of the police is that while suffering from temporary insanity, caused by her continued taking of morphine, Mrs. Marquette left her bed and went into the yard and tried to kill herself. The loss of blood from the wound restored her reason partially, and she tried to get back into the house.

When she reached her room she was too weak to regain her feet and fell upon the floor where Miss D'Argy found her.

It was long as March 16 full descriptions of these articles were printed in the Evening World, and a full description of the Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The World, however, has exposed Summer's plot and his house of cards tumbled yesterday in the hearing at the Tombs Court and again later in the day at the inquest.

Evidence corroborating The World's accusations against Summer was adduced yesterday afternoon at the inquest, by Mrs. Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, in claiming the Astor House suicide's body as Wright's, would have effectively blocked the inquest's game. The attorneys were identified Saturday that the proofs which heretofore had been developed by an Evening World reporter were conclusive, and they were satisfied that Wright was the Astor House suicide.

Lawyer Taylor told the jury that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

HE WAS WRIGHT.

The Coroner's Jury's Verdict in the Astor House Suicide Case.

The Edgar Theory Exploded and Utterly Discarded.

Summer's Frauds Commended to the Attention of the Grand Jury.

The inquest on William Wright, who committed suicide at the Astor House, where he had registered as "Fred Evans," was continued yesterday by Coroner Levy and a jury.

The evidence presented yesterday by Lawyer George H. Taylor, Jr., of Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, the Wright family's attorneys, in the shape of "Evans's" clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The theory of the police is that while suffering from temporary insanity, caused by her continued taking of morphine, Mrs. Marquette left her bed and went into the yard and tried to kill herself. The loss of blood from the wound restored her reason partially, and she tried to get back into the house.

When she reached her room she was too weak to regain her feet and fell upon the floor where Miss D'Argy found her.

It was long as March 16 full descriptions of these articles were printed in the Evening World, and a full description of the Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The Wright family's clothing, linen, collar buttons and boots, with all their tell-tale marks and initials, shown in comparison with those of the Wright family, made a profound impression on the jury.

The World, however, has exposed Summer's plot and his house of cards tumbled yesterday in the hearing at the Tombs Court and again later in the day at the inquest.

Evidence corroborating The World's accusations against Summer was adduced yesterday afternoon at the inquest, by Mrs. Seward, Guthrie & Morawetz, in claiming the Astor House suicide's body as Wright's, would have effectively blocked the inquest's game. The attorneys were identified Saturday that the proofs which heretofore had been developed by an Evening World reporter were conclusive, and they were satisfied that Wright was the Astor House suicide.

Lawyer Taylor told the jury that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

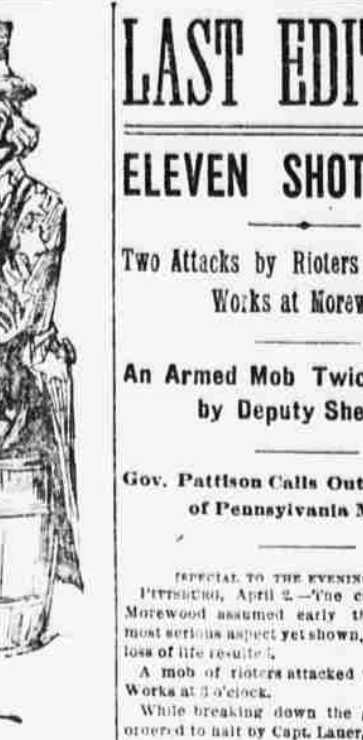

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

It was the fact that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House. The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

The jury was told that the same day when Wright was found dead at the Astor House, he was also found dead at the Astor House.

UNCLE SAM—Don't be too hard on me, sonny. Why don't you fight some one your size?

ACCUSE THEIR PARTNER.

Schoff, Fairchild & Co. Lose $50,000 by Falsification of Books.

Church Treasurer F. M. Holmquist No Longer in the Firm.

Baron Fava is Expected to Sail from New York Saturday.

His Fate in the Balance.

Nearing the End of Stephan's Trial for Murder.

Warner Miller a Castaway.

He and His Party Wrecked on the Dangerous Roncador Reef.

Thomas Baring is Dead.

The Great London Banker a Victim of Roman Fever.

Helen and John Reconciled.

Ball-Player Ward and His Actress Wife Arrive on the Teutonic.

Fassett's Report in Skeleton.

It May or May Not Be Ready for Presentation Next Week.

Clubbed for Kicking a Snapping Dog.

Arrested on a Charge of Arson.

Arrested on a Charge of Arson.